May be related: How do I get my logon screen for Windows 7 to not show the time, but instead go to a regular Windows start screen? Thank you for the help. A: I found it. As a side effect of.NET Framework 3.5 not running on Windows 7 it was providing some false information. Edit your computer's host file at c:\windows\system32\drivers\etc\hosts and add: 127.0.0.1 youtube.com When I did that, and restarted Network List, things worked as expected. References: (Why does my Windows 7 system show incorrect time at the logon screen?) C:\windows\system32>type ntv.dll
